9 to 5: The Musical is presented through special arrangement with Music Theatre International (MTI). All authorized performance materials are also supplied by MTI.

Hello FMCT Friends and Families,

Welcome to the Fargo Moorhead Community Theatre's production of 9 to 5 The Musical. I hope while you're watching tonight's show that you laugh out loud and ponder just how far we have and have not come in the last 40+ years. In a new documentary "Still Working 9 to 5" creators Hardman and Lane share behind-the-scenes narrative, interviews and archival footage to demonstrate how the original movie 9 to 5 helped galvanize the public, making it easy to connect the dots between the 1980's movie and the empowerment themes and the contemporary #MeToo and #TimesUp movements of today. "These are new slogans, but these are not new issues." Still Working 9 to 5 pays tribute to the classic film while also exploring the not-so-humorous problem of workplace inequality that still affects people everywhere in 2022.

As you're about to discover, the creative team at FMCT chose to utilize mixed media throughout the telling of tonight's story. The creators of the most recent 9 to 5 Broadway tour have shared that they believe that the pace of this musical is written to mirror the experience of old variety shows like Sonny & Cher and Carol Burnett, and we've leaned heavily into that idea for tonight's production. We're using video clips, photos, recordings, and T.V. sound effects to take you back in time. Just like T.V. shows from the 70's, the rapid-fire nature of this classic comedy is in marked contrast to the very serious aspects of the morally motivated hi-jinks intended to teach a lesson to the characters facing situations that you, the audience, may also be facing. So, here's to the hope of a more just tomorrow, and as for tonight, may you laugh until your sides ache. Thank you for coming to our show and for supporting FMCT.

Thank you also to the very talented cast of this play. It has been a joy to work with each one of you!

To the tech crew and staff at FMCT, you are all crazy, wonderful people! Thank you for your laughter, your commitment to excellence, and your willingness to work long hours- at least we're doing what we love! You really are a gift to everyone who knows you!

To our guests, whether it's your first time seeing a production at FMCT, or you're a long-time patron of our productions, on behalf of everyone at FMCT I'd like to welcome you to the Hjemkomst. Your support means everything to us. Please grab a drink from the bar, settle in, and enjoy tonight's entertainment.

With joy,
Judy Lewis
Director of 9 to 5
