A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR OF “SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER”, JUDY LEWIS

Good Evening and thank you for joining us tonight!

Bringing Saturday Night Fever to the stage has been a real celebration of music, movement, and the deep emotions that shape our lives. At its heart, this story is about dreams: the ones we chase, the ones we fight for, and the ones that define who we are.

Tony Manero's world is filled with ambition, heartache, and discovery. His journey reminds us that the power of dance, the bond of friendship, and our ability to see ourselves clearly can lift us beyond our circumstances.

To this incredible cast and crew, you have poured your passion into every note, every step, and every scene; it has been such an honor to direct you on this stage! And to you, the audience, thank you for allowing us to transport you back in time, to a world where dreams spark under disco lights, and music brings people together in ways that words often cannot.

I hope you leave tonight feeling uplifted, moved, and maybe even inspired to dance a little more in your everyday life.

Enjoy the show!
Judy

THE FOLLOWING IS A STATEMENT
INCLUDED IN THE 1946 PLAYBILL FROM
THE FARGO MOORHEAD COMMUNITY
THEATRE FOUNDING PARTNERS,
ARTICULATING THEIR VISION FOR THE NEWLY FORMED THEATRE:

"With the establishment of a Community Theater, residents of Fargo-Moorhead now share with people in many other cities of the nation the opportunity to regularly see offerings of the legitimate theater. With continuation of the present support the Theater will soon find its permanent place in our community.

The Theater was organized in February after several meetings of people with varying interests and backgrounds but a common interest in the stage; there were potential actors, designers of costumes and scenery, stagehands, directors, makeup artists, house managers, producers—and some folks who just liked to see plays. Each was able to contribute something to the development of a well-rounded organization. A play was selected, a director secured and production started. Public response to ticket sales already assures the Theater of being self supporting...

...it is the purpose of the Theater to present professionally produced legitimate stage plays for the entertainment of patrons, to provide opportunities for those people who are interested in working in the theater either as a hobby or preliminary to a professional career and to make these opportunities available to everyone without regard to race, creed, color or position in life."
